

Rajasthan State Industrial Development & Investment Corporation Ltd., Udyog-Bhawan, Tilak-Marg, Jaipur-302005

No: IPI/P-5/2013/46/62
Dt: 12 April, 2019

OFFICE ORDER

As per certain provisions in RIICO Disposal of Land Rules, 1979, an applicant has to submit application with requisite keenness money for reservation of industrial land prior to opening of industrial area under the provisions of Rule 3 (AB), for preferential allotment of industrial land under the provisions of Rule 3(W) and for allotment of land for setting up educational institutes under the provisions of Rule 3(E).

It has been observed that sometimes due to delay in approval of reservation/allotment of land in above cases, the applicants raise demand for payment of interest on keenness money deposited with the application. Such request of the applicants is not considerable as there is no such provision in the relevant rules. However, a view has been taken by the Management of the Corporation that such applications should be decided expeditiously so as to avoid the above situation.

In view of above, all concerned are directed to ensure that any application for allotment/reservation of land received with requisite keenness money, be examined and processed timely for deciding at the level of Competent Authority within prescribed time. All such pending application shall be placed before competent authorities for decision with details of prescribed time, immediately.
